Umatilla County Fair Announces 2016 Fun at the Fair Day Camp Logo Contest Winner

PRESS RELEASE: April 6, 2016

Fun at the Fair Day Camp Logo Contest Winner –Estefany Sanchez

Fifth grader Estefany Sanchez of West Park Elementary in School in Hermiston, has won Umatilla County's Fun at the Fair Day Camp logo contest! Out of all the entries, Estefany's artwork best exemplified the 2016 Umatilla County Fair theme "Traditions & Transitions". In addition to countywide recognition, she will receive 2 adult day passes, 4 children day passes, 1 Fun at the Fair Day Camp T-shirt and 1 carnival wristband (good for one day of rides) for the 2016 Umatilla County Fair. Estefany's logo will be displayed on the Fun at the Fair Day Camp shirts that are worn by each child enrolled, on the Umatilla County Fair's website and facebook page and on all Fun @ the Fair correspondence. In its fifth year, the Day Camp will claim Estefany's logo as only the third theme logo created for the camp since the decision was made to hold a county wide logo contest 2 years ago.

Prizes will also be awarded to the second place winner Nathalie Hoyos, a fifth grader at West Park Elementary School in Hermiston; and to the third place winner, also a fifth grader Lily Wickstrom of West Park Elementary School in Hermiston.

Fair Manager Don Slone hopes to rally participation for the logo contest next year as it is offered to grades K-5 in Umatilla County. Logo contest information is emailed in the Spring to all Umatilla County schools servicing K-5th grade students.
